

Grantwriting Team

Karen Calcaterra, M.A., Grant Specialist, is an experienced professional grant writer with a high rate of success (over 90%) in receiving funded proposals. In the past decade she has been awarded over 4 million dollars in grant funding for various projects, including top-ranked state and federal funding for multiyear programs.

- Well-versed in submitting proposals at all levels, from local arts boards, to private family, community and corporate foundations, and local, state, and federal government grant programs.
- Over 10 years as program manager, with grant administration and nonprofit project management experience over a broad array of collaborative projects with multiple partners, gives her practical experience developing realistic goals and implementation plans for your project.
- Experienced writing proposals in various fields, including health and human services, workforce development, arts, education, youth services, criminal justice, and faculty research.
- Experienced proposal reviewer for university funding, human service program evaluation and education.

Analytical, logical, detail- and deadline-oriented, responsive to your needs, communicative, and able to craft a compelling argument for your program.